REGIONAL DEVELOPMENT AND DEMOGRAPHIC FLOWS OF SOUTHEASTERN EUROPEAN COUNTRIES

Niš, 27 June 2014

Over the past half century of its existence, the Faculty of Economics has excelled in the field of education, research and development and secured its position among the leading institutions of economic profession. Traditionally, throughout its fifty-year history, the Faculty of Economics has organized scientific conferences on current issues. Each year, the number of participants is growing increasingly as well as the number of countries the authors come from.

Considering that the issue of regional development and demographic flows is current, to date the Faculty of Economics has organized scientific conferences dedicated to this issue eighteen times.

This year, the scientific conference "Regional Development and Demographic Flows of Southeastern European Countries" will be organized for the nineteenth time.

We are pleased to invite you to give your contribution to the Conference with your papers and active participation during the Conference.

THEMATIC AREAS

- A Delay in EU Enlargement and its Consequences on Regional Development
